In Memoriam

Carl E. Morrison, principal of Dallas Senior High School from 1948 to February 9, 1960.

Carl E. Morrison was an important person in the lives of the teachers and the students he supervised during his many years of work in public education. The lessons learned from his thoughtful, kind, considerate ways are invaluable and will return rewards for years to come upon all who had the pleasure of this association.

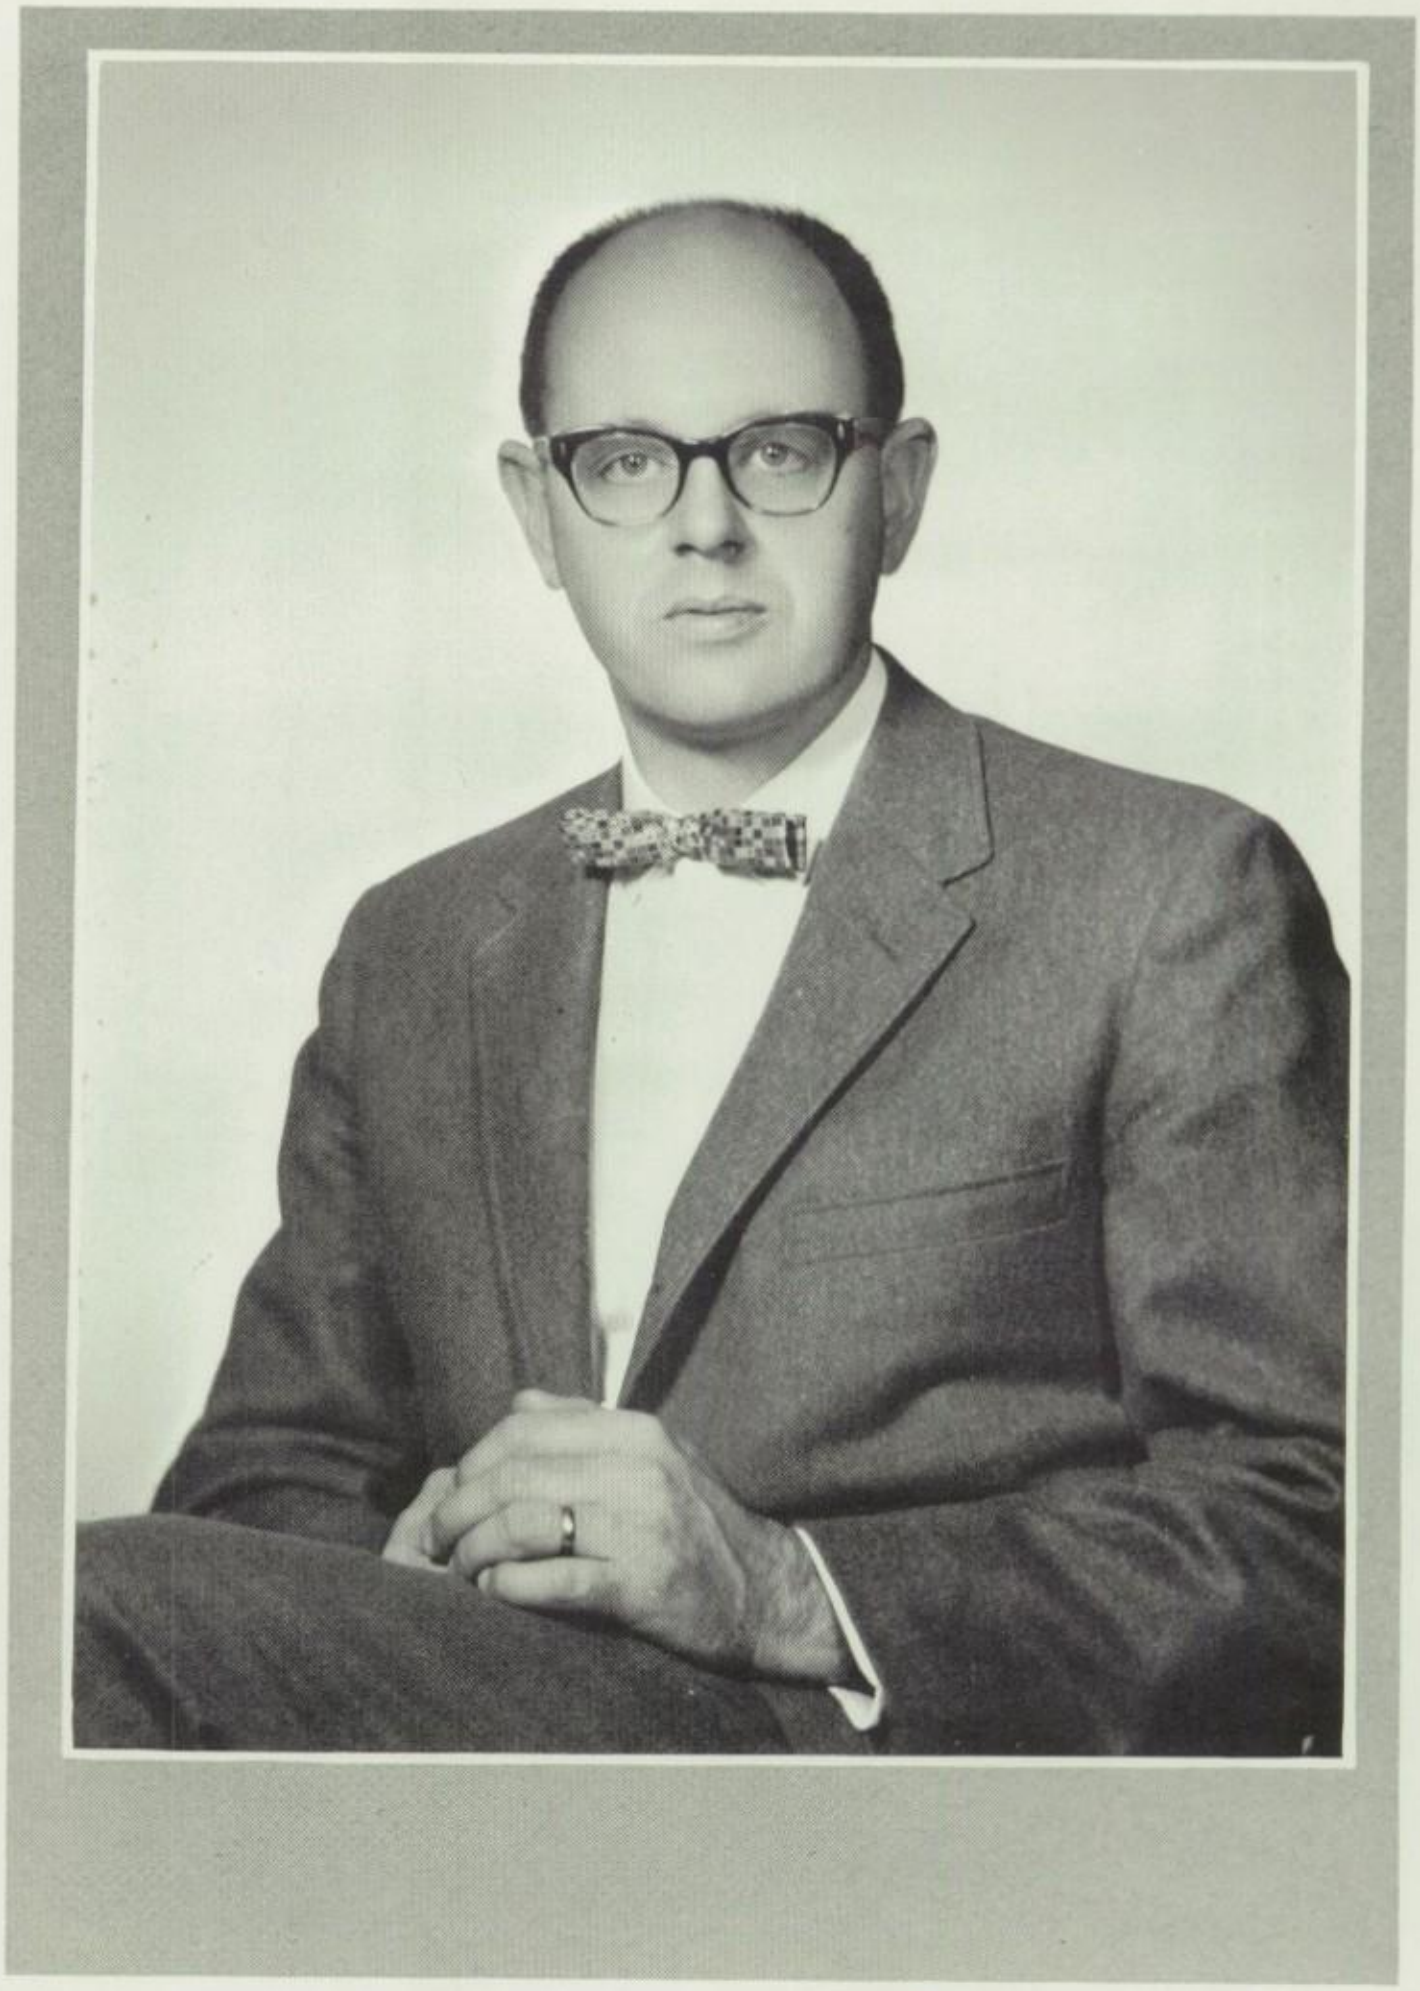
Mr. Morrison was a remarkable individual. He was the same congenial person every day of the year, refusing to let his own problems interfere with his work or his consideration for others. He was always ready to talk with students or teachers and listen to their problems, and as a result, people leaned heavily upon him for advice and friendly counsel. Students returning to visit school were quick to seek his friendly handshake and genuine smile.

Carl E. Morrison was a native of Polk County. He was born in Salt Creek Community, just north of Dallas. He started elementary school in Dallas and graduated from Perrydale High School where he earned a teaching certificate. During the ten years after high school graduation, Mr. Morrison taught school in Polk County and attended Oregon College of Education, graduating from that college in 1926. Later, Mr. Morrison received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Oregon and a Master of Education from the Oregon State College. In 1948, after 20 years of administrative work in Coos County, he returned to Dallas as high school principal, a position he held at the time of his death, February 9, 1960.

The influence Carl E. Morrison had on students, teachers, and friends can never be measured, but it will be a permanent part of each who came in contact with him, for a lifetime.

Dedication

It is with a great deal of pride and gratitude that we, the Senior Class of Dallas High School, dedicate this 1960 annual to our friend, benefactor and educational leader, Mr. Gordon Kunke.



GORDON A. KUNKE

School Board

Dwight Webb, Gayle Kreason, George Kurre, William Young, Ellis Neal, and Kenneth Shetterly; Dr. Casey not present.

Superintendent Ellis Neal

Directors, superintendent and clerk of School Disctrict #2C represent 73 years of service on the school board. As a step toward realizing the best educational program for every child, this year 8 surrounding districts were consolidated, increasing the school population to approximately 2,000 students, adding a million and a half to the assessed valuation and increasing the number of elementary buildings to 6.

Intensive study of the curriculm was begun this year in an effort to improve the quality of education. Emphasis is being placed on the study of science and mathematics, and algebra will be offered at the 8th grade level next year. Work has begun on the remodeling of the Junior High, which will require 5 summers for completion.

Directors serve without pay or compensation of any kind, except the knowledge of serving their community. After 14 years on the board, Mr. William B. Young, serving as chairman this year, was not a candidate for reelection. Mr. Clare Millhouser is the newest director.

Mrs. Robert S. Kreason, who has devoted 29 years to school work, 2 as a high school teacher, 6 as a board member, and 21 as a clerk, is also leaving the district. Mr. Robert Wall of Salem will be the new fiscal director.

and Administration

Keeping school records in order is the job of Mrs. Gladys Dunn, secretary to Sup't. Ellis Neal, and Mrs. Ruby Dashiell, secretary to Principal Gordon Kunke.

and Mrs. Jamie Whitworth

The school year 1959-60 will long be remembered for the number of developments which have had a profound influence on both school and community.

The curriculum evaluation initiated this year and conducted by the teachers is a development of considerable importance. The results will benefit both students and teachers in the form of a comprehensive curriculum designed to meet the needs of all the students in this rapidly changing world.

This study is a definite credit to our school and is indicative of a professional spirit and attitude on behalf of the entire staff.

Oh! Alma Mater, Dallas High
To thee, we raise our song;
Thy guiding hand in all we do
And they foundation strong.
The ties that bind our whole life through
And bring fond memories back
Endear to us thy colors true --

of the class of 1960

The class of '60 entered Dallas High in '57 with high hopes. Subsequently, we set records as the largest and loudest class ever to run the sacred halls. As sophomores, we gained fame by winning yell contests, presenting a talent show, and sponsoring a May dance complete with orchestra.

Our Junior year was filled with plans for the banquet and prom. Car washes and cake sales flourished in order to finance the biggest banquet held in the Whitworth School. The gym was transformed into a garden of yellow roses to suit the theme of "Moonlight and Roses".

The junior class presented us with a lovely prom to the theme of "Rhapsody in Blue". The senior girls' Breakfast, Skip Day, and the all-night graduation party were social highlights of the class. Graduation came, and with it, those mixed emotions of sentimentality and relief. The tragic deaths of our principal and two class members darkened our senior year.

We now have the basis for our future. Our history will be of individuals and never again as a group.

Team Captains Steve Webb, Everett Collingham, and Mike Grimes, talking it over.

With a booming beginning followed by a mid-season slump, the Dragon grid men snapped back in the final game and defeated the St. Helens Lyons 20 to 13 on November 6, which brought the Dragons up to tie with West Linn for second place in the league play, both teams having won 6, lost 2, and tied 1, placing them second in the league.

Co-Captains for the Dallas Dragons this year were Mike Grimes, Steve Webb, and Everett Collingham. Dennis Jones was voted the most inspirational player by his team mates. A hip injury during practice kept Mike Grimes from playing in two of the league games. He came back to play in the last of the season.

JV ROUNDUP

The Dallas JV team went undefeated for the '59 football season. Contributing to their success was hard work, cooperation and the desire to win. Fine coaching by Ray Olson and Bud Michaels was also an important factor in the team's outcome.

Upon the conclusion of the season, four players, Brad Randles, Russell Spady, Doug Selby and Jerry Benson were selected best players on the JV squad.

Brad Randles, a scrappy 145-pound guard, was named "best all-around" for his outstanding line play and his fighting spirit.

Russell Spady, defensive halfback and outside line backer was chosen "best tackle". He was exceptionally good at knocking down passes.

Doug Selby, 194-pound guard, received the nod as "best lineman". Doug played most of the time on defense where he could be counted on to hold the opposition to no gain.

Jerry Benson, 165-pound halfback, was chosen best back". He was a strong runner who could always be counted on to pick up the needed yardage.

Basketball

"A Diagram is Worth 10,000 Words"

Dallas completed its second year in the TYV League and finished in fifth place with a record of 10 wins - 8 losses. The Dragons got off to a very good start, winning six straight, however ran into difficulty at the hands of Tigard.

After losing by 38 points to the Cheesemakers earlier, the Dragons won a close and exciting game, 61 to 58 in the last home game.

For the entire year the Dragons compiled eleven wins and eleven losses ending a season of .500 pct. This was also the last season for Coach Gordon Kunke, who is now principal.

Considering that the men on the team are of average height, they played good ball despite ups and downs. The only team to defeat the Dragons more than once was the Oswego Lakers. Otherwise, they either split with the oppostion or handed them their second defeat.

Pre-season games found the Dragons losing twice to the Albany Bulldogs and splitting with the Central Panthers.

The team was composed of nine seniors and three juniors. In the starting unit were: Henry Schmitt and Everett Collingham, guards; Tim Bartel and Larry Link, forwards; and Ernie Teal, center.

Returning lettermen next year will be: Jerry Burkholder, Jim Classen and John Rice.
